City of Tshwane Mayoral Committee to unveil decisive 100-day Action Plan to transform the capital

On Wednesday, 30 October 2024, the Executive Mayor of Tshwane, Cllr Nasiphi Moya, will present an overview of the City as inherited from the previous administration. Since assuming office on 9 October 2024, Cllr Moya and the Mayoral Committee have conducted a thorough assessment of the state of the metro's governance.

Following a comprehensive evaluation of the challenges facing the capital, the new administration has developed a 100-day Action Plan to address the most pressing issues. This plan is firmly centred on the interests of residents and aims to expedite the City's recovery.

Cllr Moya will be joined by a delegation of MMCs and senior City officials. The 100-day Action Plan will prioritise targeted measures to address the current issues facing the City and provide a clear strategy for a 100-day turnaround.

Members of the media are invited to cover the press briefing.

Details of the media briefing are as follows:

- Date: Wednesday, 30 October 2024
- Time: 10:00
- Venue: Tshwane House Council Chamber, 320 Madiba Street, Pretoria
